Māori Warrior

Joe David (Ka-Ka-Win-Chealth), Tla-o-qui-aht First Nation, Nuu-chah-nulth 1996

2004-2/185

Bronze

Gift of Arthur B. Steinman

Basketry Covered Staff

once belonging to Kikisoblu, "Princess Angeline," the daughter of Chief Seattle

Makah or Nuu-chah-nulth Artist 19th century

☐ Burke

Cedarwood, swamp grass, cedar bark, string, dye

2009-73/1

Gift of John & Gwen Van Horn

Mountain, Lightning, and Icicle Basket

Ed Carriere, Suguamish 1992

Cedar root, bear grass, cherry bark, horsetail

Ed Carriere is a master basket weaver who was taught as a child by his grandmother, Julia Jacobs. In 2004 Ed met Dale Croes, a wet site archaeologist. Together they unearth ancient baskets. Ed closely examines and replicates them, saying he feels the ancestors' hands guiding his. 2007-5/1

Berry Basket with Tumpline

Suguamish Artist ca. 1850

Cedar root, grass, commercial cord, dogbane, leather, string

8644

1GN.5.0.gp2.DESIGN.v5

July 24, 2019 3:40 PM

Approved for

☐ Illo □ 3D □ 2D

