

Marge Kalama (b. 1955), Cayuse and Warm Springs, creates vibrant beadwork inspired by traditional pieces, preserving techniques that have been in use for centuries. She replenishes family heirlooms and creates new ones. Marge also shares her positivity as Marge Sohappy on KWSO Warm Springs Radio.

Baby Shoes

2016

Shoes, beads

2016-153/1

Felix Begay, Navajo, is known for his prolific production of Hano Clown Kachina, trickster figures used in Kachina ritual that are often associated with bad behavior. Steeped in satire, humor and social criticism, his carvings carry on the intertwining of the sacred and profane.

Hano Clown

ca. 1980

Wood, paint, leather, cotton cloth, fur

2016-160/1