

LEGACIES

“While I am influenced by the depth of traditional practice, I am most influenced by those who have carried that torch forward, the persons connecting together the collective legacy. Artists have an important role as culture bearers. There is no point in time when this role ceases happening, or when it stops mattering. This is an ongoing process, a living thing.”

CO-CURATING ARTIST

RYAN! Feddersen, Okanogan and Lakes, is a mixed media installation artist who specializes in interactive and immersive artworks.